

Event Extra

May 2014

Page | 1

Richmond Villa

Have you already booked a place in the Society's events scheduled for the next few weeks? If not, use the hyperlinks to reserve your spot now. Don't miss out!

Society of Australian Genealogists

Webinar

Webinar – GENUKI – the world at your fingertips

Martyn Killion

Join Martyn Killion as we explore GENUKI – the virtual library that can help you navigate your way through the wealth of genealogical material on the internet – for all your UK and Irish research.

Thursday 22 May 8.00-9.00 pm (AEST)
Your Place! $10 members only

Research Group

English Research Group: British Origins & Deceased Online

Pauline Kettle

British Origins and Deceased Online are both 'pay to view' websites that contain many hidden treasures to help your British research. In this session, we will demonstrate British Origins (available for free in the SAG library) and also revisit Deceased Online and its wealth of burial information.

Saturday 24 May 10.30 am – 12.30 pm
120 Kent Street $8 members / $12 non members

Webinar

Webinar – Family Tree Maker for Beginners

John Donaldson

Just bought FTM software and don't know how to use it? Join VicGum's John Donaldson for this beginner's session on how to use this ever popular software program for recording your family history.

Thursday 5 June 8.00-9.00 pm (AEST)
Your Place! $10 members only

Discussion Group

Writing Discussion Group: QANDIP

Helen Patterson

Quotations, Abbreviations, Numbers, Dates, Italics, Punctuation. Do you know how to use them correctly or are you guilty of the greengrocers' apostrophe?

Thursday 21 June 10.30 am – 12.30 pm
120 Kent Street $8 members / $12 non members

Lecture

Greatest Hits – Top 20 record series for family history from State Records NSW

Gail Davis

This talk will examine 20 of the most popular and useful record series for family historians held as State archives. Have you consulted these in your research? Come along and make sure you have not overlooked a record series which could be useful.

Saturday 14 June
120 Kent Street

10.30am-12.30pm

$20 members/$30 non members

Lecture

UK Criminal Records

Jeremy Palmer

A convict ancestor's arrival was the end of a process which left many records for today's family historians. Quarter Session and Assize records, along with local newspapers and other UK sources can help establish your convict ancestor's origins and the circumstances which brought him/her to this country.

Saturday 21 June 10.30am – 12.30am

120 Kent Street $20 members/$30 non members