

SOCIETY OF AUSTRALIAN GENEALOGISTS

December 2014 Edition

EVENT UPDATE

Your monthly guide to forthcoming events at the Society.
Bookings essential. Use the event title hyperlinks, or telephone (02) 9247 3953.

LECTURE: Sydney CemeteriesMartyn Killion

In this session, Martyn Killion looks at Sydney's major cemeteries and their records, with particular emphasis on what you can find online.

Saturday 13 December	10.30am to 12.30pm
----------------------	--------------------

120 Kent Street	$20 members, $30 non-members
-----------------	--------------------------------

WEBINAR: Britain's Colonial WarsPeter Lloyd

Britain's period of colonial expansion in the 19th century was characterised by military adventurism abroad and rapid industrial development at home, spreading its culture, institutions and ideas across the globe. Military history enthusiast Peter Lloyd will provide an overview of the conflicts that occurred during this period of expansion.

Wednesday 17 December	8.00pm (AEST)
-----------------------	---------------

Your Place!	$10 members only
-------------	-------------------

LECTURE: Identifying Australian House StylesJudy Keena

Can you put all your photos in time and place? In this seminar, learn how to do the architecture detective work that can add important context to your family history. Bring any photos you are unsure of (houses, gardens, backyards etc.).

Saturday 10 January	10.30am to 12.30pm
---------------------	--------------------

120 Kent Street	$20 members, $30 non members
-----------------	--------------------------------

WORKSHOP: Hands On Workshop: Perfect Printing Every TimeSylvia Murphy and Lorraine Brothers

Using the licenced websites (FindMyPast, Ancestry etc.) available at the SAG Library is a great way to get maximum benefit from your SAG membership and the Library's resources. Learn how to download, edit and print images and pages from these and other sites such as Trove and British Newspaper Archive for perfect presentation and readability. Limit 14.

Friday 16 January	1.30pm to 3.30pm
-------------------	------------------

379 Kent Street	$30 members, $45 non members
-----------------	--------------------------------

SOLD OUT
WAIT LIST &
P.M. SESSION NOW OPEN

WORKSHOP: Hands On Workshop: Perfect Printing Every TimeSylvia Murphy and Lorraine Brothers

Using the licenced websites (FindMyPast, Ancestry etc.) available at the SAG Library is a great way to get maximum benefit from your SAG membership and the Library's resources. Learn how to download, edit and print images and pages from these and other sites such as Trove and British Newspaper Archive for perfect presentation and readability. Limit 14.

Friday 16 January	1.30pm to 3.30pm
-------------------	------------------

379 Kent Street	$30 members, $45 non members
-----------------	--------------------------------

LECTURE:		Expert Photo Restoration
	Melissa Hulbert
	This workshop introduces the basics of photo restoration using the program Photoshop Elements . Melissa Hulbert will demonstrate how to repair scratches and tears, and how to bring out details in older photos, using some simple 'advanced techniques'.
	Saturday 17 January	10.30am to 12.30pm
	379 Kent Street	$30 members, $45 non members
SOFTWARE GROUP:		Legacy Software Users Group
	Bev Hysett
	Following on from a successful 2014, the Legacy Users Group will kick off 2015 nice and early. Bring your questions and laptop if you wish, share ideas and learn more about how Legacy can help in recording and presenting your research.
	Saturday 17 January	1.30pm to 3.30pm
	379 Kent Street	$8 members, $12 non members	